Charges

The Mare Owner agrees to pay all charges including GST applicable to the mare and/or progeny for, but not limited to, agistment fees, all treatments, examinations, procedures, operations and medicines administered whether by Veterinarian, or others, and any other costs incurred by the Stallion owner during the mare's and/or any progeny's stay. Interest at the current commercial rate will be charged on any service fees or agistment account not paid within thirty (30) days after an account has been rendered. Collection costs will be applied to all late payments.

The Mare owner warrants that the broodmare shall be healthy and in sound breeding condition. It is further agreed that should the said stallion be unavailable for any reason whatsoever before serving the said mare, or if the said mare named in the contract dies or becomes unfit to be bred, then this contract shall be rendered null and void.

This contract shall not be assigned or transferred by the mare Owner and in the event that the said mare is sold, the service fee and any other outstanding fees, if applicable, shall immediately become due and payable by the undersigned Owner.

Free Return

The mare is entitled to a free return to the stallion if the foal dies within forty eight (48) hours of foaling or if the foal is stillborn, in both cases to be certified by a practicing Veterinarian.

The free return is only applicable to the year immediately following the service of the said Stallion. It is a pre-condition to the obtaining of a free return in the following breeding season that payment of the original service fee is made in accordance with Paragraph 1 above, time being of the essence, otherwise the potential right to fee return is null and void.

If the mare is unsuitable to breed or is sold then the right to Free Return is null and void.

Other

Upon foaling, the mare owner shall be responsible for shipping and preparing any relevant documentation to the relevant breeding society.
